Announcements (Continued)

Pati Calvert, a sister from Sutherlin SDA church, is a local store owner in downtown Roseburg. She is doing a fundraiser through her store for the victims' families of the UCC shootings of Oct. 1. She is imitating the phrase "Take a Stand" where she is asking for donations of "night stands" that she and volunteers are going to paint in commemorative of the incident. Each night stand will be different. The night stands will be auctioned off on Nov. 1 with all proceeds given to victim's families. She is also donating a percentage of her store sales this month to the families. Young Sarena, from our Myrtle Creek SDA family was a victim in this tragic shooting. Any donation are accepted during store hours.
