Inside the Lines

Each time I commence to color a page in a coloring book I have bought, I remember to stay inside the lines to create the effect I've sought. This caution, repeated when I was young, still rings in my head today, But fresh applications occur to me to guide me along the way.

For life is a painting that each will draw, reflecting the choices one makes, The lines can preserve its purity from reckless and careless mistakes. God's Word and His counsel are sacred lines, that guard and keep one safe, Protecting the life from sordid acts which can cause the soul to chafe.
Sandra A. Haynes

We were overwhelmed by the wonderful group who took the time to attend the Men's Prayer Breakfast on Sunday! We want to thank you for the food and good cooks, the many men who came to our home to cut and stack firewood, mow the grass and yard, clean up and the generosity of the whole group, who gave us enough for our TV replacement that we needed. We were not expecting any of this. We are so grateful for each one of you. Thanks! Dick and Shirley Sloss.
