Thirteenth Sabbath Offering

The first 13th Sabbath Offering Project was introduced in 1912 to establish a mission in India. This offering has allowed the church to build schools, dormitories, hospitals, clinics, churches, mission-launches, lamb-shelters, printing presses and universities around the world. Because Tithe money is not allowed to be used for buildings, the 13th Sabbath offering has usually been for construction type projects. Today's 13th Sabbath Offering is for the East-Central Africa Division.
